Expo activities and guest responsibilities

I understand that animals can bite or scratch, contact with animals or exhibit surfaces can cause illness, and crowded aisles can lead to falls. Handling an animal is optional. I will ask the vendor before touching an animal or enclosure, follow staff instructions, and promptly report any injury or unsafe condition.

Adult participant release of liability for ordinary negligence

In consideration for admission, I release the organizer named above, its event staff and volunteers, and the named owner and operator of the venue I attend from my claims for personal injury, illness, or property damage arising from my attendance at an HCRE event at that venue, including claims caused in whole or in part by the ordinary negligence of any of these parties in running the event or maintaining the premises.

This release excludes gross negligence, intentional misconduct, and claims that Texas law does not permit me to waive.

Parent or legal guardian acknowledgment for a child

I am the parent or legal guardian of the child named above. I understand the risks described here, give permission for my child to attend, and agree to ensure my child is supervised throughout the event. My signature records my permission and acknowledgment of risk. The adult release does not waive my child's injury claims.
